Northeast Bank Donates to Common Ties - Giving Back to Those in Need

Lewiston, Maine

As part of its commitment to social responsibility and concern for its community, Northeast Bank has donated $500 to Common Ties Mental Health Services located in Lewiston.

Common Ties will put the donated money towards a new project which aims to increase access to preventive dental care and promotes the idea that every person should have a "dental home."

"This new program will help fund materials and dental services for our clients," said Lisa Dumont, Director of Business Operations at Common Ties. "We are so thankful for Northeast Bank's contribution which helps us support extraordinary lives."

Common Ties Mental Health Services is located in Lewiston and specializes in the hopeful journey of recovery and wellness for our community's families, neighbors and friends who experience a mental illness. Common Ties provides a wide range of community services geared to the specific aspirations and needs of each person.
