Northeast Bank Donates to Sandcastle Clinical and Educational Services

Lewiston, Maine

As part of its commitment to social responsibility and concern for its community, Northeast Bank has donated $1,500 to Sandcastle Clinical and Educational Services located in Lewiston.

Sandcastle Clinical and Educational Services, which specializes in early childhood education and intervention gratefully, received the donation, which will fund a playground shading structure at their new 72 Strawberry Avenue location in Lewiston. The new facility opens officially on September 1st.

"Northeast Bank has been so supportive of us throughout the years and we appreciate it so much," said Charlene O'Clair, Director of Finance at Sandcastle Clinical and Educational Services.

The philosophy upheld by the program is that every child, regardless of ability or disability, is entitled to be included with all children in accessing childhood programming. As a family-centered preschool, Sandcastle offers year round preschool and Pre-K classes.
